BILL AUSTIN, Head Coach

Most football authorities who know Bill Austin rate him as a promising young man with a bright future in the hazardous occupation of football coaching.

Austin started his life as a Head Coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers last season. He became the fourteenth headmaster in the Steelers' 35-year history in the National Football League.

Bill Austin came with a wealth of experience: He's a Californian who first began thinking seriously of football as a career when he gained some fame as a lineman with Oregon State in the late forties.

The New York Giants drafted him in 1949 and he played two seasons before serving a hitch in the service. He returned to play with the Giants from 1953 through 1957. His coach, Jim Lee Howell, called him the "best offensive guard in the League." He received his baptism in coaching at Wichita University in 1958 when he signed on as line coach with Woody Woodward. The following year he joined Vince Lombardi, who was starting his dynasty at Green Bay. He was the offensive line coach there until 1964. He then spent one year as an assistant coach in Los Angeles prior to his head coaching job with Pittsburgh.

In one season, Bill Austin has convinced a lot of Western Pennsylvanians his Pittsburgh Steelers are going to be in the thick of the NFL battles.

Austin was born October 18, 1928 in San Pedro, California but he and his wife, Goodrun, now make their home in McMurray, Pa.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LaVERN "TORGY" TORGESON, Defensive Coach

LaVerne "Torgy" Torgeson, who spent eight years as a linebacker in the NFL and five times an All NFL Pro selectee, has charge of the Steelers' entire defensive unit.

In point of service, he is the oldest coach on the staff, coming to Pittsburgh in 1962 as Buddy Parker's assistant.

He was the Detroit Lions' fifth draft pick in 1951 and was co-captain of some of the Auto City's greatest championship teams. He finished his playing career with the Washington Redskins and turned to coaching when a damaged knee put him out of action. "Torgy" played at Washington State and since 1951 he has been associated with the National Football League, either as a player or a coach. He now resides in Bethel Park, Pa. with his wife, Nola, and two daughters. He was born February 28, 1929.

TOM FLETCHER, Defensive Backfield Coach

It took Tom Fletcher a little while but he finally made it to the National Football League last season as an assistant to Bill Austin. He joined the Steeler staff as the coach of the defensive backs.

He first tried his hand with the pros back in 1953. He went to camp with the San Francisco 49ers but a serious ankle injury during the pre-season cut short his career. He quit for a season and then tried again with the New York Giants but the ankle injury was chronic. He then joined the Arizona State staff as an assistant to Clyde Smith and stayed on when Dan Devine moved to the head coaching post. Later, Fletcher moved with Devine to Missouri before joining the Steelers.

He was a halfback along with former Steeler John Henry Johnson at St. Mary's College and when the California college dropped football, both players switched to Arizona State.

Tom was born November 3, 1928. He and his wife, Fran, and two daughters reside in Bethel Park, Pa.

DON HEINRICH, Offensive Backfield Coach

A young man with ten years' experience in the National Football League handles the offensive backfield for the Steelers. He is Don Heinrich, the former University of Washington All-American, who spent six years as quarterback with the New York Giants. A brilliant diagnostician of defense, Heinrich was the nation's leading collegiate passer in both the 1950 and 1952 seasons. Five of his six years in pro ball were spent under Vince Lombardi, then the Giants' offensive coach. He worked a season for Tom Landry at Dallas and then returned to New York to handle the offensive backfield. He rounded out his education as an assistant with the Los Angeles Rams and then helped to establish the Atlanta Falcons' scouting system.

A severe back ailment forced him to miss the early weeks of the 1966 training season.

Don lives in Bethel Park, Pa. with wife Barbara, and four youngsters. He was born September 19, 1931.

LEON McLAUGHLIN, Offensive Line Coach

Leon McLaughlin, former star center for UCLA and the Los Angeles Rams, has charge of the Steelers' offensive line.

McLaughlin came to Pittsburgh in 1966 from the Stanford football staff. He had been there since 1959.

He graduated from UCLA in 1950 and played on the 1946 Bruin team which met Illinois in the Rose Bowl in the opening game of the Pacific Coast Conference—Big Ten post-season series. He joined the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and was a standout center until 1955. He played on the 1951 Championship team and the 1955 divisional winner. Prior to his work at Stanford, he worked at the high school level and at Washington State University.

He was born May 30, 1925 in Santa Monica, California. He now resides in Bridgeville, Pa. with his wife, Jacqueline and four children.

HUGH "BONES" TAYLOR, End Coach

Hugh Taylor has charge of the Steelers' offensive ends. You may know him better as "Bones" Taylor. He and Sammy Baugh caused a great deal of trouble in the National Football League a few years back.

Taylor played with the Washington Redskins from 1947 through 1954, and he was a rather busy fellow. He caught 272 passes for 5,233 yards and 58 touchdowns, something no Redskin has done before or since.

In the intervening years he has been a head football coach at Arkansas State and the Houston Oilers. He also labored as an assistant at Florida State, the New York Jets and San Diego. He joined Bill Austin's staff in 1966.

Born in Wynne, Arkansas on July 7, 1923; is married and has four daughters. He and his wife, Shirley and the family reside in Bethel Park, Pa.

STEELERS' TRAINER

ROGER D. McGILL

Joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1962 as Head Trainer. He brought with him 15 years of experience along with a Masters Degree in Education and a Therapy degree from Veterans Hospital. He started his career as an assistant to Howard Waite, former trainer at the University of Pittsburgh. A former Marine, Roger is married and has two sons and a daughter. He is past president of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association. He and his family reside in Mt. Lebanon, Pa.

THE VETERANS

ASBURY, BILL

SECOND YEAR

FULLBACK Ht. 6.1 Wt. 230 Kent State

Acquired for a future draft pick from Atlanta, Asbury was the Steelers leading ground gainer last year. He gained 544 yards on 169 carries for a 3.2 average and 7 touchdowns. Team leader in touchdowns with 9. Also a fine receiver, Bill nabbed 19 flings for a total of 228 yards. An excellent blocker who shows tremendous potential. Working for his Master's Degree in Social Psychology. Single and resides in Cincinnati, Ohio.

BAKER, JOHN

TENTH YEAR

END Ht. 6.6 Wt. 270 North Carolina College

Affectionately labeled "Big John" by his teammates. He began his football career with Los Angeles in 1958. In 1963 he journeyed to Philadelphia and later that same year to Pittsburgh. After arriving in Pittsburgh, John was immediately hospitalized with pneumonia which forced him to miss most of the '63 season. A fierce competitor, he has been the mainstay of the defensive line for the past three seasons. Defensive captain who is one of the finest pass rushers in the game today. Included among his hobbies is tennis. John lives in Raleigh. Married and has two children. He does rehabilitation work with inmates at N. C. Correctional Institute during the off-season.

BRADSHAW, JIM

FIFTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 205 Chattanooga University

With good size and speed, Jim has come along way since he broke into the Steeler organization five years ago. He took over the free safety position two years ago when Clendon Thomas was switched to offense. Missed several games during the last campaign with a severe ankle injury but he still managed to tie for the club leadership in interceptions with 4. Jim returned them for a total of 82 yards and one touchdown. Works in the off-season for Levinson Steel. A native of St. Clairsville, Ohio, he now lives in Pittsburgh with his wife and four children.

BREEDLOVE, ROD

EIGHTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 225 Univ. of Maryland

A third draft pick of San Francisco in 1960, Rod was traded to Washington just prior to the 1960 opener. Improved in his second season, winning a starting position. In 1962 he was an All-Pro linebacker and selected to play in the '63 Pro Bowl Game. He became a Steeler in time for the kickoff of the 1965 season in an attempt to bolster a depleted linebacking corps. Appeared mostly in a reserve role during the '66 season. Performs equally well at both the middle and outside linebacking posts. He underwent successful knee surgery in 1966. Rod is in the restaurant business. Married and the father of three children. Resides in Bowie, Maryland.

BREEN, GENE

FOURTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 230 Virginia Tech

Gene was drafted by the Packers on the 15th round while still a junior in 1963. Acquired in a trade with Green Bay at the start of the 1965 season. He was forced to sit out the greater part of the '66 season with a knee injury. A tough competitor who really loves to hit. With some added experience, could develop into a good one. Married, has two children and lives in Bridgeville, Pa.

BROWN, JOHN

SIXTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.2 Wt. 248 Syracuse

Acquired in a trade from the Cleveland Browns during the 1967 training season, John was drafted as a "red-shirt" by Cleveland (4th choice) in 1961. He was the late Ernie Davis' roommate at Syracuse. A top-rated lineman, John will fill one of the vacant tackle spots. John is married and works as a salesman for the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company in the off-season. He was born in Camden, N. J., but now makes his home in Cleveland, Ohio.

BULLOCKS, AMOS

FIFTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.0 Wt. 205 Southern Illinois

A fine performer in college who gained almost 5,000 yards rushing in his collegiate career. Spent a couple years with Dallas where he was one of their leading ground gainers. Played a year in Canada before joining the Steelers. Placed on the active list about half way through the season. Gained 83 yards on 29 carries for an average of 2.9 yards a carry and one touchdown. Quickness and speed make him a running threat. Home is in Chicago, Illinois.

BUTLER, JIM

THIRD YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 5.10 Wt. 185 Edward Waters College

"Cannon Ball" has shown brief signs of excellence in each of the last two seasons. Capable of running the 100 yard dash in 9.7. Specialty in the pros seems to be kickoff returns. He finished sixth in the league during the '66 season. Returned 17 kicks for a total of 454 yards and an average of 26.7 yards for each return. Longest return was 93 yards and a touchdown. Placed third among the Steeler ground gainers with 114 yards and an average of 2.5 yards per carry. His great speed makes him a constant threat for the long bomb. Could be a great one when he puts everything together. Married and has one son. Lives in Pittsburgh and works as a teacher during the off-season.

CAMPBELL, JOHN

FIFTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.3 Wt. 225 Univ. of Minnesota

A top-rated linebacker acquired by Pittsburgh from Baltimore prior to the start of the 1965 season. Began his career with Minnesota in 1963 but was traded to the Colts in the spring of 1965. One of the most vicious tacklers in pro football. Especially effective against the running game. Works with a mutual fund during the off-season. Is interested in radio announcing as a possible career after his football days are over. Married and lives in Wadena, Minnesota.

CLARK, MIKE

FIFTH YEAR

KICKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 200 Texas A&M

Mike came to Pittsburgh from the Eagles, following the trade of Lou Michaels to Baltimore. After a couple of mediocre years with the Steelers, Mike really came into his own during the '66 campaign. He registered fifth among the league scorers with a total of 97 points. The sure-footed Clark clicked on 34 out of 34 extra points and 21 out of 32 field goal attempts. His field goal accuracy was second to none. Works with his father-in-law during the off-season in the real estate business. Rewarded during the past season by being selected to participate in the Pro Bowl game. Married and makes his home in Longview, Texas.

COMPTON, DICK

SIXTH YEAR

END Ht. 6.1 Wt. 200 McMurry College

Has spent three years with the Detroit Lions, one with the Houston Oilers and another with the Denver Broncos. Now is trying out with Pittsburgh as a free agent. Is married, has one son. Lives in Coleman, Texas.

GAGNER, LARRY

SECOND YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6.3 Wt. 240 Florida U.

No. 2 draft choice of the Steelers in 1966, Larry was one of the top college prospects in the nation. Possesses good strength and speed and likes to hit. Immediately found a home with the Steelers. Was a starter in every game and showed vast improvement each week. An exceptionally fine blocker on sweeps and downfield assignments. Proved that he could hold his own with the best in the league. With continued improvement during the coming season, he could develop into one of the top linemen in the professional ranks. Is presently attending architectural school. Single and resides in Armond Beach, Florida.

GROS, EARL

SIXTH YEAR

FULLBACK Ht. 6.3 Wt. 220 Louisiana State Univ.

Earl was acquired from the Philadelphia Eagles in the Gary Ballman trade. Originally drafted number 1 by the Green Bay Packers in 1961. He is expected to give the Steelers ground game the added punch which has been severely lacking. Was Philadelphia's second leading ground gainer in 1966. Carried the pigskin 102 times for a total of 396 yards and an average of 3.9 yards per carry. A fine receiver, Earl caught 18 tosses for a total of 214 yards and 11.9 yards average. Also led the Eagles in touchdowns with 9; 7 by rushing and 2 by pass receiving. The Cajun Kid has exceptionally fine moves, and also possesses the unique ability of sliding off one hole into another. Has an overall average of over 4 yards per carry in his five years in professional football. Resides in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, with his wife and son.

HILTON, JOHN

THIRD YEAR

END Ht. 6.5 Wt. 220 Richmond University

John came to the Steelers during the 1965 training season in a trade with Detroit. Harry Gilmer, then the Lions' Head Coach, said he "hated to lose him but that he'll make a real good one—and soon." Developed sooner than any one thought into a real good one during the '66 season. With good size and fine moves, John became one of the top tight ends in the league. The Steelers leading receiver with 46 catches for 603 yards and 4 touchdowns. John is especially effective on the short look-ins and button hook patterns. Is a sturdy performer who rarely gets injured. Married and lives in Kent Store, Virginia.

HINTON, CHUCK

FOURTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.5 Wt. 260 North Carolina College

Along with the other members of the defensive line, bulwarked one of the best defensive lines in the league last season. Hinton had a couple of tryouts, one with the Baltimore Colts and one with the Cleveland Browns, before he finally made it with the Steelers. Has developed rapidly and warrants the respect of rival quarterbacks. Works as an interviewer for a neighborhood Youth Corps during the off-season. Married, has two children and lives in Durham, North Carolina.

HOAK, DICK

SEVENTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 5.10 Wt. 190 Penn State

One of the best liked athletes on the squad, Hoak is a steady and vastly underrated player. Bobby Layne once described him as a player who seldom makes a mistake. Pittsburgh's second leading ground gainer with 212 yards on 81 carries. Also a better than average receiver, Hoak grabbed 23 passes for a total of 239 yards. Also holds the unenviable task of holding on extra points and field goal attempts. Dangerous on the run-pass option, Dick completed 4 of 6 attempts for a total of 87 yards and one touchdown. Was named offensive captain during the 1966 campaign. Married and has one child. Makes his home in Greensburg, Pa.

HOHN, BOB

THIRD YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185 Univ. of Nebraska

Selected by the Rams on the 20th round in 1963 draft selection as a "future" choice. Bob was traded to Pittsburgh during the latter part of the 1965 training season. Missed the greater part of the last season because of a broken hip. Small, but a deadly tackler. Has tremendous potential to become an outstanding defensive halfback. Resides in Beatrice, Nebraska.

JEFFERSON, ROY

THIRD YEAR

END Ht. 6.2 Wt. 195 Univ. of Utah

Possesses the speed and exceptional moves to become one of the top receivers in pro football. Has played in the shadow of Gary Ballman since he joined the Pittsburgh club. Should take his place among the top receivers in the league this season. Versatile player who can perform as a pass receiver, a running back, and even in the defensive backfield. Difficult man to cover with only one defensive man. Roy was Pittsburgh's third leading receiver with 32 catches for a total of 772 yards and four touchdowns. Was the league leader in average yards per catch with a total of 24.1 yards for each reception. His longest gain was for 84 yards and a touchdown. An effective runner on the end around play, Roy gained 36 yards on 2 carries. Led team in punt returns with 12 for a total of 29 yards. Is very effective on the long or "fly" pass patterns. Roy and his wife, and two children make their home in Pittsburgh, Pa.

JETER, TONY

SECOND YEAR

END | Ht. 6.3 Wt. 220 | Nebraska

Acquired from Green Bay along with Lloyd Voss for a future draft pick. Tony is a brother of Packer star, Bob. Big enough to make a top-notch tight end. Got off to a slow start but started to come on strong toward the end of the season. Is expected to give John Hilton a real battle for the tight end post. Works as a teacher in Pittsburgh in the off-season.

KEYS, BRADY

SEVENTH YEAR

HALFBACK | Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185 | Colorado State

Tied for the club leadership in interceptions with 4. Usually a dangerous punt and kickoff return specialist, Brady had an off year returning only 5 punts for a total of 11 yards. Tremendous speed and agility enables Keys to stay with most any receiver in the league. One of the best if not THE BEST tackler in the Pittsburgh secondary. Brady is notorious for his high "head hunting" tackles. Gets better with age, gaining knowledge and confidence with every game. Married and has two children. Resides in Los Angeles, California. Honored by his fellow professionals by being chosen to play in the Pro Bowl during 1966.

KILLORIN, PAT

SECOND YEAR

CENTER | Ht. 6.2 Wt. 220 | Syracuse

Voted on the 1966 AP's second All-American team and one of the outstanding centers in the country. Injury plagued his rookie year and he saw little or no action. He underwent surgery at the end of 1966 and now is at full speed. Pat is married and lives in Watertown, New York

KORTAS, KEN

FOURTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.4 Wt. 280 Louisville Univ.

Obtained from the Cardinals in an off-season trade for Terry Nofsinger in 1965. Was the Card's first draft pick in 1964 but reported overweight and played sparingly. Played a lot of defensive tackle for the Steelers in 1966. Can become as good as he wants to. Has good speed for his huge frame along with the necessary size and strength for defensive line. Came into his own last season in a game with St. Louis. Spent the entire afternoon chasing Terry Nofsinger around Pitt Stadium. Should improve and become rated with the top defensive linemen in pro football during the coming season. Works on a farm during the off-season. Single and lives in Chicago, Illinois.

LONG, JIM

SECOND YEAR

DEF. END Ht. 6.1 Wt. 235 Purdue

A versatile player, Jim is capable of playing both offense and defense. Tried out last year as a tight end, but was cut from the team and placed on the "taxi" squad. Will be given a long look at the vacant tackle position of Charley Bradshaw this year. Is a good blocker and very aggressive. Gives it all he has. Married and the father of twin girls. Lives in Pittsburgh and is a teacher and coach during the off-season.

McGEE, BEN

FOURTH YEAR

END Ht. 6.3 Wt. 260 Jackson State

Tremendous speed and agility enabled Ben to crack the starting defensive lineup as a rookie and remain there ever since. Has helped to make the Steeler defensive unit one of the finest in the league. Extremely quick and one of the strongest men in pro football. Selected to play in the Pro Bowl during 1966. Has shown marked improvement each year and should become one of the great ones before he calls it quits. Was the Steelers' 4th draft choice in 1964 and was an All-American on the Pittsburgh Courier's 1964 team. Spent a year in the Air Force. Lives in Starkville, Mississippi.

MAGAC, MIKE

SEVENTH YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6.3 Wt. 240 Univ. of Missouri

An outstanding lineman in the Missouri Valley Conference, Mike was the 49ers' second draft selection in 1960. After a slow start he developed rapidly, winning a starting berth in 1962. Has a reputation of being one of the hardest hitters in the league. Possesses good speed and is a better than average downfield blocker. Came to Pittsburgh during the '65 training camp in a trade with San Francisco. Proved last season that he has the ability to stay with the toughest linemen in the league. Married and lives in Belleville, Illinois.

MANSFIELD, RAY

FIFTH YEAR

CENTER Ht. 6.3 Wt. 250 Univ. of Washington

A very versatile performer, Ray can play offensive or defensive line along with the pivot position. Shifted to center last year and did a fine job. Is a very effective pass blocker. Was obtained from Philadelphia prior to the start of the '64 season. Has good speed and plenty of power. Married and has two children. Resides in Spokane, Washington.

MARTHA, PAUL

FOURTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185 Univ. of Pittsburgh

A home town athlete who had difficulty adjusting to professional football. One of the best all-around backs to come out of Pitt in the last two decades. Pittsburgh's first draft pick in 1964. Never untracked himself as a receiver, but an injury to Jim Bradshaw gave Paul an opportunity to try the defensive backfield. Seems to have found a home at defensive safety. A very good tackler and an excellent pass defender, Martha stole 3 enemy tosses and returned them for a total of 44 yards. Performs admirably on the Pittsburgh suicide squads. Is always among the first downfield and in on more than his share of tackles. Lives in Pittsburgh. During the off-season he attends Duquesne Law School at night. Married and has one son.

MEYER, RON

SECOND YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6.4 Wt. 205 South Dakota State U.

Obtained before the start of last season in a trade with the Chicago Bears. Divided his time between the active roster and the taxi squad. Possibly has the strongest arm on the team but lacks experience. Completed 7 of 19 passes for 59 yards, appearing in a reserve role. Will battle it out with rookie quarterbacks for the second spot as a signal caller. Married and makes his home in Worthington, Minnesota.

NELSEN, BILL

FIFTH YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6.0 Wt. 195 U.S.C.

If Bill can shake the injury jinx he should be ready to take his place among the top quarterbacks in the league. Has been hampered the past two seasons with knee injuries. Missed the greater part of last season because of a knee operation. Got off to a great start last year with 18 completions in 30 attempts for 271 yards and 3 touchdowns in the season opener with the Giants. Injured his knee in the second game against Detroit and didn't return until the final three games of the '66 campaign. Still managed to complete 63 passes out of 112 attempts for 1122 yards and 7 touchdowns. Led the league in average yards gained per pass attempt with 10.02 yards for each pass thrown. Only had one pass intercepted during the 1966 season. A great field general who has tremendous confidence in himself and his teammates. Possesses good leadership qualities and has the ability to make the Steelers the "sleepers" in the 1967 season. Is equally adept at throwing both the long and short pass and his uncanny ability at play calling is second to none. Married, has two children, and works as a trucking salesman in the off-season. Native Californian, now resides in Pittsburgh.

O'BRIEN, FRAN

NINTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.1 Wt. 250 Michigan State U.

Acquired from Washington before the start of the 1966 season. A fine offensive tackle who performed well in a reserve role when he was called on during last season. A sturdy performer and hasn't missed a game in six years. Very good blocker, Fran was a valuable addition to the Steeler squad. Will be given a shot at the vacant tackle position of Charley Bradshaw. Fran, his wife, and their son make their home in Takoma Park, Maryland.

PILLATH, ROGER

THIRD YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.4 Wt. 255 Wisconsin

Was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in a pre-season deal last year for Bob Nichols. Played only sparingly but was impressive. Top candidate as an offensive tackle. Exceptionally fast for a tackle. Played semi-pro football for a year. Single and lives in Pound, Wisconsin.

POWELL, TIM

THIRD YEAR

END Ht. 6.4 Wt. 245 Northwestern

A big strong defensive end who divided his playing time in 1966 between the active roster and the taxi squad. Appeared mainly on the kicking teams but has great potential. Married and has one son. Resides in North Canton, Ohio.

RUSSELL, ANDY

THIRD YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 215 Missouri University

Andy was the Steelers 16th draft choice in 1963 and was a real "sleeper". Impressive as a rookie and then spent the 1964 and 1965 seasons coaching an Army Post team in Germany. A real hustler with good speed and an instinct for football. Took up last season where he left off two years ago and gave Pittsburgh a strong linebacking corps. Is working for his Masters Degree in Business Administration during the off-season. Married and has one son. Makes his home in Columbia, Missouri.

SAUL, BILL

SIXTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.4 Wt. 225 Penn State

Was traded to Pittsburgh two years ago in the Lou Michaels deal. Played only sparingly at Baltimore. Had his finest year in pro football during the 1966 campaign. Was the starting middle linebacker and developed into a real good one. A tough competitor who loves to hit. Intercepted two passes in 1966. One of the hardest hitting tacklers in the league. Lives in Baltimore, Maryland during the off-season where he is a youth director at the Y.M.C.A. Married and is the father of two children.

THOMAS, CLENDON

TENTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 200 Univ. of Oklahoma

A valuable performer who is equally at home either on offense or defense. In 1963 he tied for second best in the NFL with eight interceptions. Switched to offensive end for the 1964 and 1965 seasons. Proved to be a fine blocker and a very good receiver. Returned to his defensive safety position in '66 and intercepted two passes and returned them 24 yards. A great competitor who has tremendous desire to excel at whatever he does. Also a dangerous kickoff and punt return specialist. Played on some of the great Oklahoma teams. Is an enthusiastic golfer and has a pilot's license. During the off-season he works in the home building business. Is single and makes his home in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

VAN DYKE, BRUCE

SECOND YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6.2 Wt. 250 Univ. of Missouri

Obtained from Philadelphia in the Gary Ballman trade along with Earl Gros. Injured most of his rookie season with the Eagles. Is expected to give the Steelers needed depth on the offensive line. Single and lives in Columbia, Missouri.

VOSS, LLOYD

FOURTH YEAR

GUARD-TACKLE-END Ht. 6.2 Wt. 240 Nebraska

Was the Packers first pick in 1964. A versatile performer, who proved to be a capable replacement for the injured John Baker at defensive end during the '66 season. Very strong and agile for his size. Possesses mammoth forearms and his strength is second to none in pro football. Has enough speed to be given a shot at offensive line. Could develop into one of the top linemen in the league. Married and makes his home in Lincoln, Nebraska.

WENZEL, RALPH

SECOND YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6.4 Wt. 240 San Diego State

Acquired from the Cleveland Browns before the start of the '66 season. Fine blocker who could help at offensive line. Spent some time on taxi squad and was activated in latter part of '66 season. Married and lives in San Diego, California.

WILBURN, J. R.

SECOND YEAR

END Ht. 6.2 Wt. 190 South Carolina

J.R. was the Steelers' 13th draft pick in 1963 while still a junior in college. Is the likely successor to the vacated flanker position of Gary Ballman. A fine pass receiver and a good broken field runner after he catches the ball. Has some great moves and can catch the ball in a crowd. Is also a pretty good downfield blocker. Caught 7 passes for 103 yards in his rookie season. Look for big things from this fleet pass receiver. Single and lives in Portsmouth, Virginia.

WOODSON, MARV

FOURTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185 Indiana University

Was the Colts first draft choice in 1964. Obtained by Pittsburgh in the trade of Lou Michaels. Hampered by injuries in his first two seasons as a pro. Blossomed into a fine defensive back last season. Was given the chance to play regularly and he took advantage of the opportunity. Tied for the club leadership in interceptions with 4. Returned the stolen tosses for 91 yards. Longest return was against Dallas for 56 yards and a touchdown. A fine kickoff return specialist. Has good speed and a deadly tackler on defense. Married and lives in Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE ROOKIES

ANDERSON, CHET

FIRST YEAR

TIGHT END | Ht. 6.2 Wt. 242 | Minnesota

Has all the tools to become an outstanding football player. Could also be tried as an offensive tackle. Was picked on the fourteenth round by the Steelers in the 1967 player draft. Is single and lives in Duluth, Minn.

CROPPER, MARSHALL

FIRST YEAR

END | Ht. 6.4 Wt. 215 | Maryland State

Has the desire to catch every ball thrown to him. Marshall has good hands and is a real hustler along with having tremendous speed. A free agent, who is single and lives in New Church, Virginia.

DAVIS, SAM

FIRST YEAR

GUARD | Ht. 6.1 Wt. 245 | Allen

Has the desire and wants to play pro ball. A gutty player, Sam was signed as a free agent by Pittsburgh. Married and resides in Jacksonville, Florida.

DECKARD, KEN

FIRST YEAR

END | Ht. 5.11 Wt. 175 | McMurry College

The Steelers signed Deckard as a free agent. With fine speed, may be employed as a kickoff and punt return specialist. Runs the 100 in 9.6. Lives in Abilene, Texas.

FREITAS, ROCKNE

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.6 Wt. 260 Oregon State

Steelers' third selection in the 1967 Player Draft. His father named him after the late, great Knute Rockne of Notre Dame fame. Excellent coordination for his size. Possesses good strength and is a fine pass blocker. Will be given a shot at the vacant tackle post of Charlie Bradshaw and also will try it at center, being a versatile performer. Played in the Atlanta, Ga. Coaches' All American game and the Chicago All-Star game. Single and lives in Kailua, Hawaii.

FORURIA, JOHN

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK-HALFBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 195 Idaho

The eighth round draft choice of Pittsburgh in 1967, John is an excellent field general who can throw the long ball and is an accurate short thrower. Has quick delivery and can locate his second receiver well. John is single and makes his home in Boise, Idaho.

HAGGERTY, MIKE

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.4 Wt. 250 Miami (Florida)

Selected on the sixth round by Pittsburgh in the annual player draft. Is a good pass blocker who has fine potential. Has the speed to be given a try at offensive guard. Is single and resides in Miami, Florida.

HOMAN, JIM

FIRST YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6.2 Wt. 235 U.S.C.

Gets off the line with explosion and is a good blocker. The Steelers' thirteenth draft pick in 1967, he is big and strong. Jim is an effective pass protecter who loves the game. Single and lives in Long Beach, Calif.

JONES, JIM

FIRST YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.3 Wt. 245 Omaha

Came to Pittsburgh via the New York Jets with whom he had a try last season (1966). Although primarily a defensive end, his quickness and speed will enable him to be a prime candidate for a linebacking job with Pittsburgh. A teacher in the off-season, Jim is single and lives in Morristown, New Jersey.

LUCAS, HAROLD

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.2 Wt. 275 Michigan State

A second draft pick of the Cardinals in 1966. Hal will add to the defensive strength of the Steelers. Lucas was an All American lineman at Michigan State. He is married and lives in Detroit, Michigan.

MARION, JERRY

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 5.11 Wt. 185 Wyoming U.

Was drafted as a junior eligible on the tenth round by Pittsburgh in 1966. A very versatile athlete who can help the Steelers either on offense or defense. Has good hands and is a dangerous punt and kickoff return specialist. Tremendous sense of balance and is very hard to knock off his feet. Also a fine baseball player and did some punting at Wyoming. Led Wyoming to a Sun Bowl victory in 1966. Married and has three children. Lives in Laramie, Wyoming.

MAY, RAY

FIRST YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.1 Wt. 234 U.S.C.

The Steelers fourth draft pick in 1967. Has good football ability and sense, extremely aggressive and a tough man to handle on sweeps. Should bolster the Pittsburgh linebacking crew. Single and lives in Los Angeles, California.

MOORE, RON

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.3 Wt. 252 U. of Nevada

A great pass blocker who is extremely quick and aggressive. Signed as a free agent. Worked on weights to build himself up for pro football. Single and makes his home in Reno, Nevada.

MORGAN, BOB

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE BACK Ht. 6.0 Wt. 205 New Mexico

A free agent who could make it if experience counts. He played for a Toronto, Canada, football team last year and played well enough to merit the tryout with Pittsburgh. Married and lives in Ontario, Canada.

NIX, KENT

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 195 Texas Christian

Obtained from Green Bay in 1967 in an effort to strengthen the quarterback position. The retirement of Ron Smith, who incidentally was acquired from Green Bay prior to 1966, makes it a definite possibility that Nix could be the second in line for the signal calling post. He threw 267 passes for 119 completions, 11 TDs and 1,471 yards in college. He makes his home in Corpus Christi, Texas.

PORNISH, PETER

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 5.11 Wt. 200 North Dakota U.

Signed as a free agent in 1967. Played mostly offense in college but prefers defense. Very tough and a strong tackler. Born in Latvia, but now makes his home in Williston, North Dakota.

SHY, DON

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.1 Wt. 213 San Diego State

Steelers number two draft choice in the recent player selection. Great prospect who is also a track star. Second best hurdler in the nation, and third best decathlon man in the nation. Powerful, quick and has good balance. With experience and game knowledge could be a great one. A good competitor who shows second effort. Played in junior college for two years. Two year total at San Diego included 1544 yards in 266 carries for a 5.8 average. Single and lives in Pomona, California.

SMITH, BILL

FIRST YEAR

CENTER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 250 Oregon University

Pittsburgh drafted Bill on the sixteenth round in 1967. Has good blocking technique and fine maneuverability for a big man. Has the desire to play. Single and resides in Eugene, Oregon.

TUBBS, BOB

FIRST YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 235 Northwestern

Played defensive end in college but will be given a look as outside linebacker. A hard nose who has good lateral movement. Signed as a free agent. Single and resides in Evanston, Illinois.
